The formula to be used for conducting risk assessments, assessing the risk from observed infringements/hazards or after an Audit, is shown here. Very minor injuries should score 1 while very serious ones will score higher, personal judgement is needed here. Likewise with the likelihood, 1 is very unlikely that anybody would be exposed to the hazard, while 7 means definite exposure to the hazard. Again personal judgement is needed.

Once the two scores are agreed they should be multiplied, thus giving a risk rating between 1 and 42.

Scores:

1-6 = Very Low risk

7-12 = Low Risk

13-18 = Low to Medium Risk

19-24 = Medium risk

25-30 = Medium to High Risk

31-36 = High Risk, stop the activity and implement immediate controls.

Over 36 = Very high Risk, stop the activity and implement immediate controls.

Risk Calculation Matrix

	How likely is an injury
How serious will the injury be	1	2	3	4	5	6	7

Notes:

Hazards = Things that can cause and injury.

Risk = The likelihood of an injury happening.

□ Risk Control.

Control measures are intended to reduce the risk to an acceptable level.

- Where practicable the Company commits itself to the elimination of hazards, whether that is by the provision of access arrangements, machine guarding or the provision of special tools etc.

This approach will take into account normal good practice within this sector of industry and the standards and guidelines where these are available.

CONTROL MEASURES

A Fire Safety Programme shall be developed when appropriate by management to:

- (a) Guard against an outbreak of fire
- (b) Ensure as far as is reasonably practicable the safety of persons (including members of the public) on the premises in the event of an outbreak of fire.

The Fire Safety Programme shall incorporate arrangements for:

- (a) The prevention of an outbreak of fire through the establishment of day to day fire prevention practices.
- (b) The instruction and training of staff to familiarise them with fire and emergency evacuation procedures, fire call points and use of fire fighting equipment.
- (c) Taking part in fire and evacuation drills.
- (d) The provision and maintenance of escape routes, free from obstruction and all exits unlocked and operational.
- (e) The provision of adequate fire protection equipment and systems.
- (f) The inspection and maintenance of the fire protection equipment systems.
- (g) The provision of assistance to the fire authorities.
- (h) The maintenance of good housekeeping practice to ensure the removal of all combustible rubbish.

- (i) The testing and maintenance of portable heating appliances, and ensuring that all electrical equipment is switched off and unplugged when not in use.

4.2.1 FIRE FIGHTING EQUIPMENT

The purpose of portable fire fighting equipment is as follows:

1. Extinguish incipient fires
2. Protect means of escape in case of fire
3. Protect employees and visitors
4. Protect property.

Portable Fire Extinguishers

Portable fire extinguishers will be provided in sufficient numbers to give adequate cover as per the advice of our Fire Protection Company.

Action in the event of fire

1. Clear everyone from the immediate vicinity of the fire except those actually authorised to engage in fire fighting.
2. Alert other staff in the immediate area of the fire. Contact the Fire Brigade, giving them the address clearly and any other directions necessary.
3. If there is no danger by doing so, try to put out the fire with the apparatus provided, but remember our equipment will only be effective on a small fire - you must catch it before it gets hold.
4. Use the break glass fire alarm.
5. The manager of the area will order evacuation of the building as soon as it becomes apparent that the fire or smoke is spreading.
6. Employees should not delay their departure to collect personal belongings or animals from another part of the building and should assemble at the designated assembly point so that they can be quickly accounted for.
7. Make sure that the building is cleared of employees and visitors. Close doors. See that no unauthorised person enters the building.

4.2.2 MEANS OF ESCAPE IN CASE OF FIRE

It is essential that escape routes be established, clearly identified and maintained available for use and that the protection afforded them is not impaired in the operation of the premises.

No person shall obstruct a means of escape. Fire exit routes and doors must never be obstructed.

4.2.3 FIRE DRILL

Staff will partake in 2 fire drills per year.

4.3 ACCESS AND EGRESS

HAZARDS

Inadequate access and egress facilities can result in:

- Restriction of an orderly evacuation of the premises
- Trips and falls
- Obstruction of emergency exits

RISK ASSESSMENT:

Likelihood	Severity	Risk Value

- Fire: - Inadequately and infrequent disposal of combustible rubbish.

RISK ASSESSMENT:

Likelihood	Severity	Risk Value
Score =	Score =	Result =

CONTROL MEASURES

All employees and also visitors are at risk, due to the potential of slippery walkway surfaces or objects placed in walkways etc. in the way.

All persons to be made aware of any wet floors with the use of signage or word of mouth depending on the size of the work area however if possible for all floors are to be dried immediately.

Also to be made aware of any such cleaning activities that will leave residue on the floor(s) or wall's, also any work being carried out e.g. building work, maintenance work, risk of tripping on trailing leads cables.

In the case of a dog excreting or urinating on a floor, mud walked in making surfaces slippery etc. senior staff are to ensure the area is immediately cleaned, this eliminating the risk of slipping.

Salt for gritting to be made available in freezing weather conditions, and minimal water to be used for kennel cleaning in freezing weather conditions.

Staff to make sure any trailing leads are placed so that they have no risk of tripping

Any items or equipment not in use are to be cleared away and stored properly to eliminate risk of tripping.

- R.S.I.
- Bruised or broken toes or feet.
- Various sprains, strains, etc.

RISK ASSESSMENT:

Likelihood	Severity	Risk Value
Score =	Score =	Result =

CONTROL MEASURES

Loads which must be manually handled shall be assessed on the basis of their risk to health and safety and due caution exercised where there is a risk of back injury etc. The method of handling shall take account of the size, weight, shape, condition and position of the load to be handled.

Where possible measures shall be taken to reduce the amount of manual handling to a minimum and mechanical handling devices supplied and used in so far as is reasonably practicable.

All appropriate staff shall be trained in safe manual handling techniques.

Where loads have to be manually handled, safe access shall be assured.

Precautions

1. Manual Lifting Procedure

1. The Lift

The key factors in safe lifting are:

- a) balance
- b) position of back
- c) positioning of the arms and body
- d) the hold

a) Balance

Since balance depends essentially upon the position of the feet, they should be apart about hip breadth with one foot advanced, giving full balance sideways and forward without tension.

In taking up this position, lifting is done by bending at the knees instead of the hips and the muscles that are brought into use are those of the thigh and not the back.

b) Position of the Back

Straight - not necessarily vertical

The spine must be kept rigid and straight, but not necessarily vertical. The spine can be kept straight if it is within 15 to 20 degrees from the vertical. This, coupled with a bent knee position, allows the centre line of gravity of the body to be over the weight, so reducing strain.

c) Position of the Arms and Body

The further the arms are away from the side, the greater the strain on the shoulders, chest and back. The elbow must at all times be close to the body, arms should be straight when carrying a load. One hand should be in advance of the other, whichever foot is placed forward, the same hand is extended, the other hand is kept close to the body. This position ensures that the elbows are into the sides. This coupled with the correct foot position ensures a safe and easy fit.

Revision number	Date	Document owner	Approved by	Page number
01	xx/xx/xx	Manager 1	Manager 2	40

d) Arms close to the Body

The further the weight is away from the centre line of gravity of the lifter, the greater the strain. At all times get close to the weight and try to make it part of you.

e) The Hold

When grasping a weight, one often hears the phrase "get a good hold". A good hold means a grasp with the roots of the fingers, not just the tips, plus contact of the weight with the palm of the hand.

Never forget that size and build has no bearing upon the amount any one individual can lift. Everyone should know their own capabilities and should never attempt to exceed them. If in doubt get help, it is far better to be safe than sorry.

Besides these key factors, there are other important points to remember.

2. Centre Line of Gravity

It is essential that the weight of object and the centre line of gravity of the lifter should be as close as possible to one another. This reduces strain, discomfort and the likelihood of loss of balance during the course of the lift.

3. Testing the Weight

When in the initial position for the lift, the lifter should test the weight of the object to make sure it is within his capability and not too heavy for one man to lift. Many accidents happen when a person raises an object a few inches off the floor, realises it is too heavy and lets go.

4. The shape of the weight

Note the shape of the object. It should be turned, if possible, so that the shortest measurement of rectangle is nearer to the centre line of gravity.

Revision number	Date	Document owner	Approved by	Page number
01	xx/xx/xx	Manager 1	Manager 2	41

5. Movement.

The movement should be controlled and smooth. The weight should be kept close to the body.

Rhythm plays an important part in reducing tension and creating relation.

Before moving any loads, the job should be sized up and possible hazards moved or rectified.

An inspection of the load itself must be made to ensure that it can be moved without danger to the lifter or others.

The following check list can be usefully applied to all lifting jobs:

- if the load is heavy or too large for one person to handle, help should be obtained from a work-mate of similar physique
- jerking a load will add a little extra force, but it will also cause severe strain to the arm, back and shoulder
- even if a load is light in weight, it is dangerous to carry if it is large enough to obscure vision
- loads should not be pushed onto stacks above chest level. If a stack is this high, stand on a sturdy platform
- if the load to be lifted exceeds half the weight of the person lifting it, it is more than likely that the individual will lose his/her balance.

Note: if in doubt when lifting GET HELP.

TRAINING

Any employee whose job involves any manual handling shall be trained to allow him/her to carry this out safely. The extent of the training will depend on the type of lifting in which they are involved.

4.8 VISUAL DISPLAY UNITS (VDU'S)

HAZARDS

The main problems that may be associated with VDU's are as follows:

(a) Visual Discomfort

This recognises a contribution from a number of ocular problems:

- (1) long/short sight problems
- (2) glare
- (3) lighting
- (4) screen brightness
- (5) clarity of characters.

(b) Posture

Good adjustable seating is required and it is essential to consider ergonomic factors.

(c) Radiation

Radiation levels across virtually the whole of the electromagnetic spectrum are below internationally accepted exposure limits when tested under extreme conditions, i.e. close to the screen.

(d) Stress

The work at a VDU can be repetitive and monotonous. This is not exclusive to VDU users as mental stress is associated with all types of work.

On the basis of available evidence, the 'health hazards' associated with VDU's are largely exaggerated in the sense that they are unlikely to cause irreversible long term damage as opposed to varying degrees of discomfort.

Risk Assessment:

Likelihood	Severity	Risk Value
Score =	Score =	Result =

Revision number	Date	Document owner	Approved by	Page number
01	xx/xx/xx	Manager 1	Manager 2	46

CONTROL MEASURES

- Each workstation shall be assessed to ensure the individual's health is not likely to be put at risk.
- The Display Screen Assessment sheet in the appendix shall be used for this purpose.
- Be sure that VDU screens meet the appropriate criteria for performance, brilliance, character design, etc.
- The intensity of the beam, the brightness of the dots against the background and their time persistence are the most important determinants of operator 'safety'.
- This underlines the importance of keeping VDU's in good condition.
- It is important that chairs are correctly selected and used and that their siting is at an optimum distance from the machine.
- Lighting, ventilation and temperature must be carefully controlled to provide satisfactory environmental conditions.
- There should be a restriction on continuous use:
- Over two hours with pauses of between 5-10 minutes before further use.
- In this respect, short, frequent intervals are more beneficial than infrequent long breaks.
- The total time of continuous work at a VDU should be restricted to 6 hours per day.
- Vision should be tested before operating a VDU and at yearly intervals, or earlier if symptoms are experienced. Spectacle wearers should consult their optician.
- Epileptics should see a medical adviser before starting work.

If there is any untoward incidence of VDU related problems medical advice must be sought.

4.9 HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES & MEDICINES

HAZARDS

Health hazards from substances can be divided into the following categories:

- ❑ External contact - corrosive, skin absorption, dermatitis.
- ❑ Inhalation - gases, fumes, vapours.
- ❑ Ingestion - swallowing.

RISK ASSESSMENT:

Likelihood	Severity	Risk Value
Score =	Score =	Result =

CONTROL MEASURES FOR GENERAL ITEMS

- ❑ All substances are listed in a safety file.
- ❑ All substances have an up to date Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) on file.
- ❑ The control measures listed in the MSDS are followed.
- ❑ A written assessment, control measures and other information are on site.
- ❑ All substances are stored in an appropriate unit that is fire retardant and can contain spillages.
- ❑ Procedures planned to handle or use any hazardous substance or process are carried out fully.
- ❑ Any, equipment, hygiene measures or protective clothing are provided and maintained as required.
- ❑ Any necessary air sampling, medical examinations, testing, etc. will be carried out as required and records will be kept on the premises.
- ❑ All measures necessary to protect other workers and the general public from any substance hazardous to health will be provided and maintained.

CONTROL MEASURES FOR MEDICINES

The advice and guidance of a Vet will always be sought however set out here are some general controls:

- ❑ Medicines are only administered to an animal upon the express and written instruction of the owner or a Vet.
- ❑ Where possible we will try to use a pour-on rather than an injectable product as this may be safer for the employee.
- ❑ Provide facilities to ensure animals are properly restrained.
- ❑ Ensure operators are properly trained and competent to safely use the product. Work with veterinary medicines should only be done by competent persons who have received adequate instruction, information and training.

- ❑ Dispose of any surplus concentrate or dilute product safely.
- ❑ Store securely all medicines and application equipment such as syringes and needles, where children cannot get at them.
- ❑ Always follow the label or package instructions carefully, especially those relating to personal protective equipment.
- ❑ Wash off splashes from the skin and clothing immediately, and wash before eating, drinking or smoking.
- ❑ Report all suspected cases of poisoning or other adverse reactions, so they can be thoroughly investigated.

4.10 General Kennel work

Note: All kennel work is subject to individual assessment and the production of a method statement to cover the tasks and activities of the specific job.

HAZARDS

- Multi hazard

RISK ASSESSMENT: As per individual assessments

Animal handling, unpredictable animal behavior, and repetitive cleaning, feeding, and treatment tasks mean that kennel workers need training, proper equipment and facility design, along with safe work practices.

Advice to staff:

Before you handle an animal, assess its health, stress level, and body language. A gentle animal can turn aggressive if startled, so protect yourself and the animal by using personal protection and handling tools. When working with cats, wear long sleeves and gauntlets to protect your arms. Use the appropriate glove for hand and finger protection from punctures (sharp cat teeth) or crushing (large dog bites). Wash your hands throughout the day and before eating, drinking, or leaving work.

Use handling tools like a lead or leash to move or exercise gentle dogs. Cat tongs safely and humanely move aggressive and/or feral cats. A tether pole moves gentle and aggressive animals while keeping them away from your body. Secure animals by collar hooks or in the kennel/cage before you release them. Consider muzzles when you must closely handle animals for medical treatment or exams.

01	xx/xx/xx	Manager 1	Manager 2	49

To avoid bites and scratches, don't lean on, walk close to, or place your fingers or face in or near a cage or kennel. Ideally, kennel and cage doors should open outward to avoid getting trapped inside a kennel or crushed between the door and jamb if an animal launches against the door. Communicate an aggressive animal hazard with warning signs on the kennel and flag the animal's file.

During medical treatment, secure animals to the exam table or at floor level. Before you give an injection, secure a dog in a collapsible treatment chute or tethered at multiple points. Use a clear cage shield or barrier for cat injections. For highly aggressive animals, use a safety stick pole for injections. Know where your hands are during the injection. Wear eye protection and a face shield to avoid splashes. Practice needle safety; do not try to re-cap or break needles. Put used needles in appropriate containers.

Prepare yourself for unexpected animal movements that can push or pull you and cause strains and sprains. Use a wide foot stance for stability. Wear safety boots or shoes with non-slip soles for traction and protection from heavy animals. Hold small, gentle animals firmly and as close to the body as possible when transporting them or giving treatments. Don't lift larger animals; use ramps to move them into cages, trucks, and exam tables.

OTHER CONTROL MEASURES

- All employees will be fully qualified in their areas of expertise.
- Copies of the qualifications will be kept on file.
- Only take dogs out that are on lead restraints and muzzled, in a local area regularly used by the kennel for walking.
- Staff also equipped with a fluorescent vest to wear if visibility outside is poor.

CONTROL MEASURES

- Always wear safe clothing and use equipment that is in good repair.
- Wear pants to protect your legs, especially while riding.
- Never run, make sudden movements or sudden loud noises around animals. Some animals will become startled from sudden actions or noises and a startled animal is more likely to cause injury to you than a calm one.
- All employees or visitors coming into contact with the dogs are at risk of bites or scratches.
- Staff to be trained and guided in how to handle and behave around the dogs.
- Muzzles and Lead restraints are to be used when appropriate, and any greyhounds taken out walking beyond the kennel complex are always muzzled.
- Staff to be issued with personal protective equipment as necessary e.g. gloves

Use of Hand Tools (such as grooming aids etc)

- Any employee using grooming aids on the dogs is trained in correct use.
- Equipment to be visually checked before use to ensure it is safe.

4.15 General Health Hazards and Zoonosis

Hazards

- Etc.

All outdoor staff

RISK ASSESSMENT:

Likelihood	Severity	Risk Value

CONTROL MEASURES

General Advice:

Zoonoses (disease passed from animal to human)

Any employee or visitor coming into contact with an infected dog. Staff to be informed of any animals suffering with skin complaints such as sarcoptic mange, and instructed that senior staff will instead handle those animals.

Staff instructed to regularly wash & disinfect hands after handling the animals and wear gloves if appropriate.

Staff to be issued with personal protective equipment when needed

Weil's disease (Leptospirosis)

Water in ditches, slow moving rivers and ponds may contain rat urine capable of causing this life-threatening disease. Infection arises through cuts, abrasions and through the eyes and the lining of the nose and mouth. Always wash your hands before eating, drinking or smoking. Cover cuts and broken skin with waterproof plasters. If you are working with parts of your body immersed in water wear waterproof protective clothing. Never touch dead rodents with bare hands.

Weil's disease starts as a feverish illness with a high temperature and headache. At this stage it can easily be controlled with antibiotics, so contact your GP straight away. Carry a leptospirosis medical contact card to alert others to the possible nature of your illness.

Lyme disease

This disease is spread by bites from infected ticks. The earliest sign may be a faint ring-shaped rash. Often you may not notice this and only become aware of the illness when you start to experience intermittent flu-like symptoms. At this stage the infection responds well to antibiotics but if left untreated may result in serious illness. The best defence is to keep your skin covered – especially your legs. Check your skin and clothing frequently. Carefully remove any ticks and place a small dressing over the bite. The sooner the ticks are removed the less likely you will be infected. If you are worried about possible infection contact your GP.

Tetanus

The organism causing tetanus is widespread and can enter your body through cuts, abrasions or puncture wounds made by splinters and thorns. It is potentially fatal and immunisation before infection is the only certain way of dealing with the disease. Check with your doctor how often you need a booster.
